

Name: _____

Date: _____

Myths and Misconceptions of People with Disabilities "Quiz"

1. People who use wheelchairs cannot move and must stay in their chairs.
True False
2. People with hearing impairments cannot speak.
True False
3. People with disabilities live very different lives than people without disabilities.
True False
4. People with disabilities should only work at special jobs made just for them.
True False
5. Most people who have cerebral palsy are less intelligent than the general population.
True False
6. People who have sight impairments have excellent hearing.
True False
7. If people have epileptic seizures, you should NOT place something in their mouths to prevent them from "swallowing" their tongues.
True False
8. People who have developmental disabilities who do not live at home live in institutions.
True False
9. People who have developmental disabilities do not have the same feelings as people without disabilities.
True False
10. People who have hearing impairments do not appreciate music, theater, movies, etc., because they cannot hear.
True False