Help create disability awareness

Join community leaders and families as we celebrate the 20th anniversary of the Museum of disABILITY History, the only museum of its kind in the U.S., dedicated to advancing the understanding, acceptance and independence of people with disabilities. The Museum's exhibits, collections, publications, archives and educational programs create awareness and a platform for dialogue and discovery. All event proceeds will benefit the Museum's educational programming.

Tickets: $20 per family and under 18 free

Auction featuring restaurants and attractions, plus other amazing items.
