“Thankful, Blessed Individual” and a Review of Traumatic Brain Injury

Author presentation with meet and greet • Q&A • Book signing • TBI information

Wednesday, March 27, 2019

11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

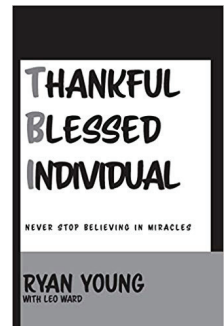

Museum of disABILITY History
3826 Main Street, Buffalo

Ryan Young shares his story and presents his book, Thankful, Blessed Individual: Never Stop Believing in Miracles

Ryan Young’s story is one of initial tragedy, growing strength and perseverance. Life has its ups and downs and Ryan’s life has been no different. However, it is Ryan’s belief in himself and his faith which allows him to be a source of motivation and inspiration for all.

Community members are encouraged to attend to learn more about what a strong man with a traumatic brain injury, a community of faith and an inner desire to do the right thing can accomplish.

TBI Presentation by Ronald Fernández, RRDS, CRC, LMHC, Director, Headway of WNY

Learn what a traumatic brain injury (TBI) is and its causes, history of services in New York State, Waiver Program and treatment options.
